

37th Annual

Concours d'Elegance of America at the Inn at St. John's

Friday, July 24 - Sunday, July 26, 2015

2015 Enthusiast of the Year

The Board of Directors of The Concours d'Elegance of America at the Inn at St. John's are proud to name Bruce Meyer as our 2015 "Enthusiast of the Year."

Bruce is a renowned collector of historic race cars from Le Mans to Indy to Bonneville. From Duesenbergs to dragsters, the best are represented in his stunning collection, many of which have won multiple awards at Pebble Beach and other Concours from coast to coast.

He was the first Chairman of the Petersen Automotive Museum in Los Angeles, California, where he still serves as Vice Chairman of the board. Bruce also serves on the board of the Nethercutt Collection, the Mullin Automotive Museum, the steering committee of the Pebble Beach Concours d'Elegance, and the LeMay Museum in Tacoma, Washington.

He has received several prestigious awards for his dedication to the Collector car hobby, and has participated in the historic Mille Miglia; the Goodwood Festival of Speed; and all the important US rallies, from the Colorado Grand to the Copperstate 1000 in Arizona.

We're thrilled to honor Bruce, and to celebrate his dedication and contribution as our Enthusiast of the Year!
